

Margaret Mc Clellan Gatti, Esquire

Margaret Mc Clellan Gatti, Esquire is an international business lawyer engaged exclusively in the practice of Customs law, export control law, international trade law and international tax law. She founded her own law firm, Gatti & Associates in 1992 and established the firm's office in Haddonfield, New Jersey.

Licensed to practice law in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia, Ms. Gatti is also admitted to the Court of International Trade. She has a solid working knowledge of the German, Spanish and Russian languages and obtained the following degrees B.A., M.A., M.B.A. and J.D., 1991.

Ms. Gatti has over 28 years of practical international business experience. In addition to engaging exclusively in the practice of international business law since 1992, she held the position of Senior Vice President in the International Banking Department of Mellon Bank and also founded and managed her own import \ export company. Ms. Gatti has managed several offshore business offices and has traveled overseas extensively.

She is a frequent lecturer on international trade topics and is co-author of Trading in America, Incoterms for Domestic Use. Additionally, she is also the author of many published articles dealing with international trade and international tax, including articles in the Customs House Guide, the Official Export Guide, the North American Trade Guide and the Journal Treasury Management Association. Ms. Gatti is Chairperson of the Mid-Atlantic District Export Council, Presidential Advisor (former president) of the World Trade Association of Philadelphia, a Regional Coordinator of the Export Legal Assistance Network (ELAN), and a board member and legal counsel for the National Council on International Trade Development (NCITD). She additionally is a member of the Pennsylvania, New Jersey State, New York State and American Bar Associations; The District of Columbia Bar; the Customs and International Trade Bar Association, the American Association of Exporters and Importers and the Society for International Affairs.